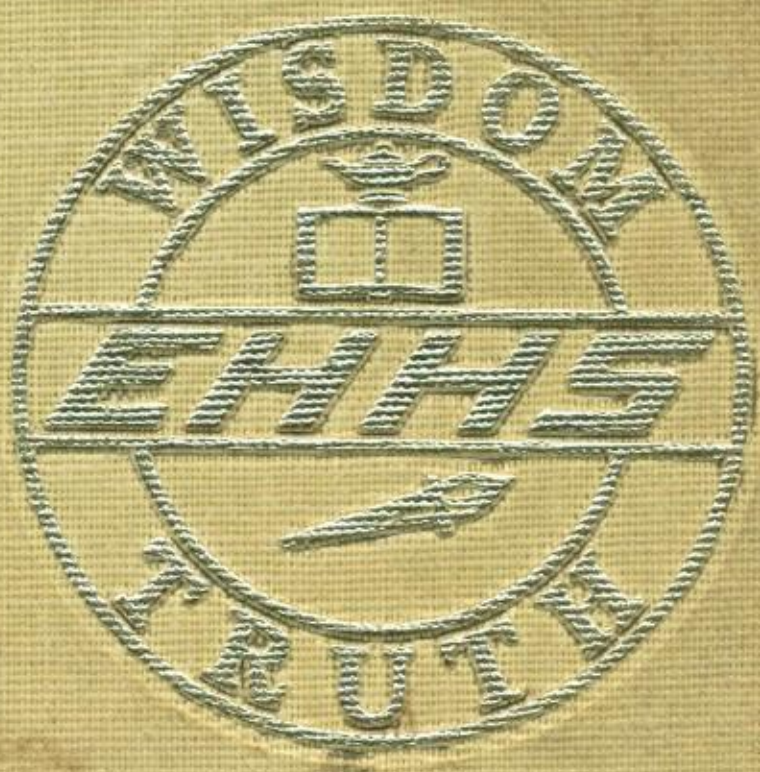
PIONEER 72



When time who steals our years away
Shall steal our pleasures too,
The mem'ry of the past will stay
And half our joys renew.

Our last days as students of E.H.H.S. were filled with fun and excitement. Our Senior Prom was held at the Park Plaza on June 16, 1972. Pat Dorn and his Orchestra provided dinner and dance music. Then our After Prom was held in the school cafeteria from 1:00 to 4:00 A.M. Madeline Simpson and Bette Bosco were chairman and co-chairman respectively.

At the Awards Assembly all outstanding Seniors were recognized for their scholastic and athletic achievements.

On June 15, interested Seniors participated in the Senior Assembly, which was our chance to mock the school, the faculty, the underclassmen and ourselves. Paul Criscoulo was chairman.

On June 14, our Senior Luncheon was held. Our entire class received their yearbooks which the Pioneer Staff had spent the entire year preparing. The dedication was announced, and Mr. John MacPartland, who has spent many years in the dedicated service to East Haven High, was honored by the Class of 1972 upon his retirement.

Finally our Graduation Day arrived. In our last meeting as a class together, the completion of our twelve years of education was celebrated with family and friends. Now our heads were turned to the future and its challenge for success and happiness.

Respectfully submitted,
Laurie Hall, Historian

It takes PEOPLE

with the knowledge, understanding and willingness to serve you

Automation has revolutionized much of our society, but yearbooks still require much individual attention. T. O'Toole and Sons, one of the first printers in the nation to produce yearbooks by offset brings to you progressive ideas tempered by experience and a reputation for painstaking workmanship. Our factory trained sales staff is always available for individual advice. Because of their backgrounds in the printing industry these representatives can easily solve any problems you may encounter with yearbook production—themes, layout, use of color, fitting copy, line drawings, advertising, proofreading and photography. Our modern plant extends a constant invitation to yearbook staffs and their advisors. Feel free to stop in at any time for an introduction to today's printing.

THE ROAD NOT TAKEN

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
Aud sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth.

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same.

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way.
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood and I-
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

Robert Frost

When time who steals our years away
Shall steal our pleasures too,
The mem'ry of the past will stay
And half our joys renew.
